

KAISER BEREFT OF ALL POWER TO MAKE WAR, NEW NOTE SAYS REPLY TO AUSTRIAN SURRENDER AGREEMENT READY BY NIGHT

COMMUNICATION ADRESSED TO AMERICAN PEOPLE, NOT TO THE PRESIDENT AS INDIVIDUAL

Reiterates Former Statements That Actual Power and Responsibility Have Been Transferred to the Reichstag; Will be Submitted to the Supreme War Council in Paris.

VIENNA ACCEPTANCE TO BE SENT TO ALLIES

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Another note from the German government reached Washington today. It supplements the last brief communication saying armistice terms were awaited, by reciting in detail governmental changes which have taken place in Germany as evidence that the kaiser has been deprived of all power of making war and negotiating peace.

This time the Germans do not address President Wilson personally but send the information for the American government, apparently recognizing that the stage of personal appeals has passed with the transmission of their armistice and peace plea to the Allies.

I reiterates that the actual power and responsibility of the government has been transferred to the reichstag and describes the progress of the necessary constitutional changes.

The note probably will be forwarded immediately to Paris where the supreme war council is reported to have formulated terms upon which the United States and the Allies might permit a cessation of hostilities.

As word of the new German move came it was learned that President Wilson was working today on a reply to the last note from Vienna in which the Austrian government accepted all principles and conditions of the President and asked for armistice and peace proposals.

The reply, which probably will be made public before night, is expected to inform the authorities at Vienna, that on the basis of acceptance of all conditions, including actual independence and not mere autonomy for subjects, the request will be referred to the governments with which the United States is associated.

The armistice program, said to have been prepared by the supreme war council, had not been reported on early today by the American representatives. The government, however, is known to favor terms equally as drastic as those described in press dispatches as agreed upon at Versailles.

Frederick Oederlin the Swiss chargé received the German note and appeared at the State Department shortly after noon to deliver it.

It was stated later that the new communication made no change in the situation. The next step is expected to be an announcement from one or all the capitals of the co-belligerents of armistice terms.

VERSAILLES CONFERENCE AGREES ON TERMS
LONDON, Oct. 30.—The Versailles conference, according to the report current in London, has agreed on the main points of the armistice terms, which will now be considered by the military commanders.

The final peace terms, it is said, will be submitted to Germany simultaneously with the armistice terms. As part of the terms of an armistice the Evening News says it understands the Allied nations will insist upon the surrender of the German fleet, including all the German submarines, and upon the occupation by Allied forces of all the fortified towns on the Rhine.

SCHOOLS REOPEN

SIX NEW PATIENTS WITH FLU RECEIVED; NO DEATHS OCCUR

State Board of Health Offers Suggestions for Reopening the Schools When Ban Is Lifted.

Six new patients were admitted to the emergency hospital at the Macabee building yesterday for treatment of influenza. Two were discharged. There are now 55 cases being cared for. Many of the patients in the institution are well on the road to recovery while there are still some serious cases. Every death that has occurred at the hospital so far has been one of the serious cases, many of the patients being in a dying condition when admitted to the institution.

A communication received here from the state board of health suggests that when conditions warrant the lifting of the ban that the schools be opened sometime near the middle of the week, the churches and Sunday schools the Sunday following. In this way overcrowding that would occur if the Sunday schools were first opened would be avoided and bring the children gradually together.

The letter suggests that health authorities and school boards act in conjunction in opening the schools. It says that the schools must not be opened too soon and that great care should be practiced at the time of removing restrictions. The communication says thousands of school teachers are now engaged in nursing and that these should have a few days of rest, preferably a week, and should be absent from the bedside of the sick for that period of time before returning to the school. It is also suggested that where possible medical or nursing supervision would be advisable, especially for a few days after opening.

No action on reopening the schools in this city has yet been taken.

HONOR FLAGS FOR CITY AND NEARBY DISTRICTS HERE

The honor flags for Connellsville, South Connellsville and Connellsville township awarded each of the three districts for attaining the quota in the Fourth Liberty Loan drive have arrived here and are in the hands of the committee in charge of the campaign.

The honor flag for Connellsville contains four bars significant of the Fourth Loan drive and also four stars, the city having gone over the top four times in the amount of money raised. The flag will be delivered to Mayor Duggan immediately but no arrangements have been made for any formal presentation, the state board of health order prohibiting public meetings.

The honor flags for South Connellsville and Connellsville township contain four bars. Each of the two districts went over the top by a comfortable margin.

Fifteen patients are at the emergency hospital which is being conducted in the H. C. Frick auditorium at Leisegang No. 1 under the auspices of the Red Cross there. Two patients have been discharged. "No Political Party Paramount To Patriotism," Declares Hughes

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Calling for national unity "after the methods of a Republic and not an autocracy," and deploring President Wilson's assumption that only the return to Congress of a Democratic majority would uphold his national leadership, Charles E. Hughes declared in an address here last night that bi-partisan support alone would save the President from "the lesser dignity and influence of mere party leadership."

Speaking at a Republican rally in the Union League club, Mr. Hughes declared that "no political party is paramount in patriotism" and that the Republicans had a right to express their political preferences. Continuing, he said:

"Must we Republicans patriotically loathe and give without seeking a voice in the national assembly, yielding our representation to Democrats, not as more worthy or more sacrificing or more intelligent, but to Democrats as such and simply because they are Democrats?"

After declaring that the issue was transcendent, Mr. Hughes emphasized the need for complete victory in the war, the crushing of arbitrary and tyrannical military power and the dawn of the new era of peace and justice.

MARKELL ASKS A RECEIVER FOR PENNA. FUEL CO.

Exorbitant Salaries Drawn By Officers of Brokerage Concern. Charge.

CONSPIRACY IS ALLEGED

S. A. Carson, Greensburg, and G. M. Hochheimer, Majority Member of Board of Directors Said to be Attempting to "Freeze Out" Minority.

Charging mismanagement and a conspiracy between S. A. Carson, of Greensburg and G. M. Hochheimer, majority members of the board of directors, to "freeze out" the minority stockholders by reckless use of the assets of the corporation, F. E. Markell of Connellsville, on behalf of himself and other stockholders yesterday petitioned the court to name a receiver for the Pennsylvania Fuel company and for an injunction restraining the payment of alleged high salaries to Carson and Hochheimer. Since the filing of the petition the company has given the defendants to file an answer within 15 days. The Pennsylvania Fuel company is a coke brokerage firm, with headquarters in Uniontown. The petition for a receiver and an injunction supplemented a petition filed by Markell October 7, asking for an accounting of the company's books and an order declaring previous salaries paid Carson and Hochheimer declared null and void and an order directing them to repay to the corporation all money in excess of what may be deemed a proper and reasonable salary. Carson, according to the original petition, owns 40 shares of the company's stock, Hochheimer 30, Markell 20 and 10 shares are held by others not named. The company is capitalized at $10,000.

Markell alleges that as a "result of a fraudulent conspiracy and agreement between them to appropriate to themselves the profits and earnings of the corporation," Carson drew a salary for 1917 of $14,750 and Hochheimer $22,000 for the same period. So far in 1918, the petitioner says, Carson has drawn in salary the sum of $3,800 and Hochheimer $4,750.

After deducting the sum of $3,709.87 for reserve, Markell sets forth the books of the company on June 30, 1918, showed a surplus of $6,720.61 and alleges that the business has been so conducted that a deficit of $749.30 was shown on August 30 claiming that during the months of July and August a loss of $9,900 was sustained.

In the supplement to the original petition filed yesterday Markell charges that notwithstanding the pendency of the suit the defendants continue to pay themselves exorbitant salaries and are incurring large expenses which are charged on the books of the company to "traveling and entertaining." Mr. Markell further alleges that the defendants have loaned the credit of the Pennsylvania Fuel company to the Faith Coke company, an enterprise practically belonging to them and that as a result the capital of the concern in which he is interested is impaired and likely to prove insolvent. He claims that the methods were adopted by the two controlling directors for the purpose of rendering worthless his investment.

Would Surrender Charter.
A petition was placed on file yesterday in Uniontown by Ida M. Thornton, president and Charles E. Mueller, secretary, asking for permission to surrender the charter of the Mueller Distilling company, with offices at Guyana. The company was organized September 15, 1913, with a capitalization of $5,000. A bankruptcy on the petition will be held November 26.

HEALTH TALK

SPANISH INFLUENZA OR GRIP

By DR. LEE H. SMITH

An old enemy is with us again, and whether we fight a German or a germ, we must put up a good fight, and not be afraid. The influenza runs a very brief course when the patient is careful, and if we keep the system in good condition and throw off the poisons which tend to accumulate within our bodies, we can escape the disease. Remember these three C's—a clean mouth, a clean skin and clear bowels. To carry off poisons from the system and keep the bowels loose, daily doses of a pleasant laxative should be taken. Such a one is made of May-apple, leaves of aloes, root of jalap, and called Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Hot lemonade should be used freely if attacked by a cold, and the patient should be put to bed after a hot mustard foot-bath.

To prevent the attack of bronchitis or pneumonia and to control the pain, Anuric tablets should be obtained at the drug store, and one given every two hours, with lemonade. The Anuric tablets were first discovered by Dr. Pierce, and as they flush the bladder and cleanse the kidneys, they carry away much of the poisons and the uric acid.

It is important that broths, milk, buttermilk, ice-cream and simple diet be given regularly to strengthen the system and increase the vital resistance. The fever is diminished by the use of the Anuric tablets, but in addition, the forehead, arms and hands may be bathed with water (tepid) in which a tablespoonful of salutaris has been dissolved in a quart. After an attack of grip or pneumonia to build up and strengthen the system, obtain at the drug store a good iron tonic called "Ironide" Tablets, or that well known herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.—Adv.

James was formerly Mrs. Harper Brooke. The body arrived in Uniontown this morning and was taken to addition for interment.

MRS. ANNA CHURNAN. Mrs. Anna Churnan, 24 years old, died Tuesday at her home in Dunbar township of influenza. Funeral services were held this afternoon from the house, with interment in St. John's cemetery. Mrs. Churnan's infant child died on Monday.

Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the house, followed by interment in Mount Auburn cemetery.

RECRUIT BALKS AT THE JOB

Declared He Had Only Agreed to Get Kaiser and Couldn't Take On Whole Germany.

"Are you willing to go across and fight the Germans?" asked an interviewer in the master office in a former cafeteria No. 2 of a young Florida negro at Camp Dix, whose personnel record he was completing, the query being one of the formal questions put to every recruit.

"Ah, don't know 'bout dat, boss," answered the colored boy. "Ah thought 'yer jes' wanted me to go get the kaiser. Bin a-banker to fix that ole Rat Face, but does yuh mean yuh want me to lick da whole gang?"

The interviewer explained the situation. The young negro's home board had told him they were going to send him to Europe to "get the kaiser" and he came to camp thinking it was a single-handed job. His face brightened when he found that in his personal part he would have the backing of several million allies.

The personnel questionnaire made out in the mastering office brings some amazing answers from the southern negroes recently brought there for training. One couldn't remember where his father was born.

"Well, he was born in the United States," asked the interviewer. "No, indeed, sah, no indeed!" replied the recruit. "He was born in Virginia!"

The same recruit wanted to show that he could qualify under every question. "Are you a member of any lodge or fraternity?" was a query put to him. "Good Lawd, boss, I should say I was! I'm a palbear!"

New uniforms are being issued to these Florida recruits and they are the proudest soldiers in the camp. They have taken to the military game like ducks to water, and officers are amazed at the cleverness they are showing in learning drill orders in elementary army work.

PUT CREAM IN NOSE AND STOP CATARRH

Tells How To Open Clogged Nostrils and End Head-Colds.

You feel fine in a few moments. Your cold in head or catarrh will be gone. Your clogged nostrils will open. The air passages of your head will clear and you can breathe freely. No more dullness, headache, no hawking, sniffling, mucous discharges or dryness; no struggling for breath at night.

Tell your druggist you want a small bottle of Dye's Cream Balm. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, and relief comes instantly.

It is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer needs. Don't stay stuffed-up and miserable.—Adv.

Violin Resin.

For violin resin, hold down Venice turpentine with a little water until a drop cooled on a piece of glass is of proper consistency. During the boiling cold water must be added from time to time. When sufficiently thick pour into cold water; knead well, and when cold break into pieces. Expose to sun until dry and transparent. Select the best clear brown resin, melt it in a clean basin, to nearly a boil, which will clear it of turpentine or other volatile oils. Pour in paper molds.

Changes in Modern Face.

The tendency of the modern face, according to Prof. James Keith, lecturer on anthropology at the Royal Institute, London, England, is to become wedge-shaped, with a longer, narrower and more prominent nose. Prominent noses above the eyes are disappearing, and the brow is becoming smoother and of an even contour. These changes in the human face, declared the scientist, are due to changes in methods of mastication from the earlier days of the human race.

Practice of Kind Words.

Just as you now play without the music and do not think what notes you strike, though once you picked them out by slow and patient toil, so if you begin of set purpose, you will learn the law of kindness in utterance so perfectly that it will be second nature to you and make more music in your life than all the songs the sweetest voice has ever sung.—Frances E. Willard.

Logic.

"It seems to me," said the almost philosopher, "that the fellow who is constantly losing his temper would have sense enough to quit hunting it up every time."

One Reason.

The reason some men are so careless is because they know they can get away with it by merely saying "Excuse me."

Divorces Are Granted.

Divorces were granted in Uniontown yesterday in the cases of Angela Macorrio from Battista Macorrio of South Brownsville in the grounds of desertion; to Stanley Povoski, from Victoria Povoski of Footedale on the grounds of desertion and to Catherine Wertz from George R. Wertz of Brownsville on the grounds of cruel and barbarous treatment.

SCOTSDALE, Oct. 30.—A report to the board of health shows a decrease of at least 30 per cent in influenza patients but a slight increase in those developing pneumonia, which is considered only natural. This covers the situation in the town proper and makes local physicians feel very good over the outlook. The conditions in the surrounding places are not so good. The board of health has made itself known as opposed to opening any place having been closed until the epidemic abates.

The board of health asks that all persons do their shopping early in the week or earlier in the day than Saturday evening, as this brings crowds together in the stores and shops and also carries too much crowding on the streets.

There's Nothing Like a Pathe Pathephone For Real Entertainment, Pleasure and Happiness!

The Pathephone is Different!

When you see and hear the Pathephone you will not be asked to make comparisons of vague, intangible similarities. You will find it unmistakably different—visibly and audibly different from any phonograph that you have known. Different in cause, different in result; different in TONE and in the means of producing that tone. It is the only phonograph equipped with the

which has made the Pathephone internationally famous for

TONE quality and reproducing smoothness; which has made it the premier phonograph of Europe; which is fast making it THE instrument of reproduction for the people of artistic discernment in this country.

A Tone That is Life!

It's as plain as daylight that a ball of sapphire, jewel-polished under the microscope and fitting perfectly in the half-circle of the sound-groove along which it smoothly, beautifully glides, is going to reproduce a TONE of purer quality than a sharp steel needle that becomes a jagged chisel before the Record has revolved three times.

One is—metal. The other is—life.

And no mechanical task of changing needles is going to intrude into your enjoyment of that glorious, vital, living flow of music.

No Needles to Change

In the Pathephone! Undisturbed enjoyment, no needle expense, no lack of music because needles have run out—and no danger of ruining a fine Record by a slip! You can play the Pathephone even in the dark (a pleasure impossible with needle-playing machines) because the smooth, polished surface of the Pathe Sapphire Ball cannot in any way injure the Record.

Come in and hear your favorite songs played on the Pathephone!

BROTHER OF LOCAL MAN IS AWARDED A FRENCH WAR CROSS

Bryan Rust, Charlottesville, Elected for Gallantry in Removing Wounded From Dressing Station.

For his heroic conduct on the Champagne front on July 15, Bryan Rust, of Charlottesville, Va., a brother of J. Frank Rust of Connellsville, was awarded the war cross and official citation by the commanding officer according to a letter received here from Mr. Rust, who is serving with the French army. Rust is in the ambulance service. According to the citation he distinguished himself when "on July 15, during a dressing station in the first line, he assisted in the evacuation of the wounded over a road violently bombarded by the fire of the enemy." His experiences are related in part in the following: "I last wrote you on the eve of the battle of Kemmel ridge in Belgium. The next morning our division was ordered to the lines. The Germans were advancing slowly but surely. Kemmel ridge, proper, had fallen to the enemy. A further advance on the ridge would mean the forced evacuation of Ypres, facilitate an advance to the coast and threaten the whole British army in Flanders and the lines of communication with England.

"No troops ever went to battle with a finer spirit. Our division was flanked on either side by a French division and it was given to us to hold the all-important center. For 12 days we were engaged in the fiercest battle that ever raged on the Western Front. Time after time the Germans hurled themselves against our lines only to be thrown back with appalling loss. When the battle was over all of the boys were all very tired, many indisposed and some very sick with fever. I was one of the few who, other than being very tired, was none the worse because of the battle.

"After Kemmel battle we returned to a nice resting place well in the rear and stayed for a week. During that time we got our cars in good condition and waited orders to return to the front.

"After our short rest we were transferred to a new and safe division making the third division to which we have been attached since entering the service. We returned to the lines in Belgium but on another sector. There we remained for six weeks. It was fairly active but no great engagements were fought.

"We left Belgium in some haste, traveling two days and two nights in order to take part in the Champagne battle and assist in stopping the crown prince in what was to have been his merry promenade to Paris. We reached the field on July 14 and went into action next morning. The battle, which lasted only a day and ended in the complete repulse of the Germans, was preceded by the most violent artillery action we heard during the war.

"It was for his part in this battle that Rust was awarded the war cross. He declares that he feels he did not deserve it; that the French are 'generous in their praise of the Americans and in my case they seem to have gone beyond the limit of generosity and entered the realm of exaggeration.'

Before entering the service, Rust had completed the law course at the University of Virginia.

DIVIDEND REDUCED

U. S. Steel Common Will Pay $5 Per Share Instead of $3.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Directors of the United States Steel Corporation, at their quarterly meeting yesterday, reduced the 'extra dividend' on the common shares from the $3 rate effective since the first quarter of 1917 to $2. The regular distribution of one and one-fourth per cent on the common stock and one and three-fourths per cent on the preferred were voted as usual.

The reduction of the 'extra dividend' was doubtless impelled by the further enormous appropriations of $101,987,347 on account of federal income and war excess profit tax as disclosed by the quarterly report. This exceeds the appropriation of the previous quarter by slightly more than $11,000,000.

Pimples, eczema, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, and all skin troubles are quickly relieved by applying this simple skin healer and tissue builder. It contains no grease or acids and is cleanly to use.

Costly Law Proceedings.

The folly of rushing to the law to settle every little dispute is demonstrated by an action between two potteries for a sum of $2. After being in court for 11 years, it was put an end to by being referred to arbitrators, who decided in favor of the defendant in the case, and ordered the plaintiff to pay all the costs incurred in the proceedings, which were assessed at $1,000.—London Tit-Bits.

Dead Locusts Valuable.

Locusts are plentiful in Uruguay, and the farmers of that republic are compelled to keep up a constant war against them. Millions of these destructive insects are killed every year. Recently it was learned that soap, fertilizer and lubricating oil may be obtained from the dead locusts, and in the future they will be utilized for that purpose.—Popular Science Monthly.

Connie Meant Business.

Connie takes very practical views of her parents' promises. The other day, to silence a fit of crying, her mother promised her a new doll. "What shall we call her, Connie?" she said, taking the little girl on her knee. "Never mind her name, mamma," cried Connie, looking at her mother out of the corner of her eye. "We'll find a name for her when—when she's bored."

Tired, Nervous Women What You Need is Vinol

The reason we recommend Vinol so strongly for such conditions is because it is a non-secret remedy which contains Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptonates and Glycophosphates, the very elements needed to build up a run-down system and replace weakness with strength.

Glasgow, Jct., Ky.

"I was suffering from a nervous breakdown—loss of flesh and poor appetite so I could hardly drag around and do the work for my family. My doctor prescribed Vinol. It not only made me well and strong but I have gained weight."—Mrs. S. M. Gray.

For all run-down, nervous, anemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children, there is no remedy like Vinol.

Milwaukee, Wis.

"I was weak, nervous, all run down, no appetite and had taken different medicines without benefit. A friend advised me to try Vinol. It gave me a wonderful appetite, I sleep well, have gained in weight and am now strong and well."—Mrs. E. Strey.

CHIROPRACTICE

What It Is and How People Are Benefited By Taking Adjustments.

The brain is the source of power to the body, the same as the dynamo is to the cars and wires in electricity, which furnish the light and heat. And the spinal cord, which is the cable of the brain, passed down the backbone or spine, which is composed of 26 segments or small bones, sends out nerves between these bones to the different tissues of the body, enabling different organs to perform their various functions of activity.

In case these bones or vertebra become subluxated or out of their normal alignment they may cause pressure on these nerves, wherever the subluxation may exist, thereby causing disease or sickness.

When the subluxation is adjusted by the chiropractor and the cause is removed, the current is enabled to be expressed in the tissues, which permits health, and the removal of the disease, providing there is sufficient vital force in the body to repair the damage done.

Consult the chiropractor in case you are ailing no matter what the trouble and get well.

MUST BE ONLY ONE VOICE.

Answer to the last deftly worded note of Germany, acknowledging the receipt of President Wilson's most recent communication in connection with armistice proposals, is not required to be sent by President Wilson. The conference of the Allies now sitting in Versailles will frame the answer. Upon that answer will depend the whole issue of an early peace or a prolongation of the war. It is the function and power of this conference, which is composed of the representatives of the United States, Great Britain, France and Italy, to decide whether an armistice shall or shall not be granted.

This conference is not obliged to consent to an armistice if in the judgment of the nations sitting in the body the military situation makes the granting of an armistice undesirable at this time. Before President Wilson transmitted Germany's application to the Allies he demanded certain assurances and avowals from Germany, as he had the right to do, as well as the right to decline to transmit the application even after the assurances asked for were given. In the same manner the conference can require Germany to do certain things or give further assurances as preliminary and necessary to a consideration of the conditions under which an armistice will be granted.

If the Allies through this conference are willing that an armistice be granted, the fixing of the terms and conditions will be left to Marshal Foch and the commanders of the French, British, Italian and American armies in the field. In determining these conditions peace terms will not be considered. The questions before the commanding officers will deal with the military situation only, their province being to decide upon the form, extent and character of the stipulations and guarantees the civil governments of the Allies shall require of Germany in order to maintain the military supremacy the Allied armies have acquired since they assumed the offensive.

The conference may or may not enumerate the peace terms at this time, hence these terms are not to be confused with the conditions under which an armistice will be granted, a fact that ought to be kept clearly in mind by those who are following the progress of events toward an eventual conclusion of peace which, in reality, may be much more remote than appears to be. But most important of all at this stage of the negotiations do we need to keep before us the fact that the most critical phase is yet to come.

If the Versailles conference agrees that an armistice be granted and Foch demands as he certainly will, a substantial military surrender of Germany, we may expect that Germany will seek through subterfuge, cunning and the dishonest use of words to secure an easement of the conditions imposed, or strive by the arts in which she is skilled, to create a sentiment favoring her so-called "peace of justice" instead of a "peace of violence," as she would declare a compliance with Foch's conditions to be. It is against such a possibility that we of America, who have felt more of war's burdens and sacrifices comparable to those that have weighed our Allies down, need to be on our guard. It is the German nation that America will be the lone voting factor in a hard peace, because we may expect to be made with a view to nullifying our sympathies, if not also our active intervention, to save Germany from the execution which Frank H. Simonds, the war critic, says would be "consonant with the rights, interests and sacrifices of the nations which, later fighting this war for more than four years, are entitled to fix the conditions of future peace."

"We have won the war," he further says, "by unity of command. We can only turn our victory to its legitimate ends by unity of demand. Henceforth there must be only one voice, the voice of the allied nations against Germany, speaking in one decision reached in common conference."

Why We Need a Republican Congress

Nation Does Not Need a Dictator, Neither Do the People Wish the Terms of Peace and the Reconstruction After the War to Depend Upon the Uncontrolled Will of One Man.

By WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT

(By Courtesy of The Public Ledger)
(Copyright, 1918, by Public Ledger Co.)

The President, having put by, in grim times like these, the scruples of taste in his appeal to the American people for the return of a Democratic Congress, of course invites a respectful consideration and discussion by every loyal American citizen of what he says.

The appeal of the President is forcible and specious. The unified leadership he asks is autocratic power in fields in which the Constitution and principles of democracy require that he should consult other representatives of the people than himself.

In pursuit of his policies he consults neither his own party nor any other. He wishes a Democratic Senate, not because he would seek their assistance in the foreign policy to which by the fundamental law they are to advise and consent, but because he can mould them absolutely to his will without consulting them. He has visited his displeasure on every Democratic member of either house who has differed with him and called upon that member's constituency to reject him.

Is it necessary for the country's welfare that he should be absolutely ruler of this nation for the two years ensuing from March 4 next? That is the promise upon which the soundness of his appeal, in its ultimate analysis, must rest. Do we need during the life of the next Congress a dictator? One who knows the facts of this war, and our part in it, and who loves liberty and popular government, must answer no. The war is nearly won. It may take a year longer. We hope it will be less. The complex questions of the terms of peace are to be settled in the term of the Congress now to be elected.

The still more difficult questions of reconstruction after the war are to be met by that Congress. Do the American people by their action in the next election wish to make both the terms of peace and the reconstruction after the war depend on the uncontrolled will of Woodrow Wilson? That is the issue which he puts to them in his appeal.

"Unless you give me uncontrolled power, you repudiate me and my leadership before the world."

But Caesar aut nullus. (Either Caesar or nothing.)

Never in the history of this country has the President had such vast and unlimited power as he has today. It has been often exercised through agencies selected by him without great consideration of the individual. Far too many instances of partisanship in the selection of these agencies are known of all men to give point to the President's disclaimer of thought of party in this appeal. The people have restrained protest against arbitrary exercise of power in their anxiety to win the war. The power which the President has was voted to him by the Republicans in both houses. They manifested no partisan desire to withhold it, in spite of the knowledge that it would tempt the use of it for partisan purposes.

The great measure for which the President can claim credit in this war are the two draft acts. The first he could not have secured but for Republican support. The second he did not initiate until four months after he had first rejected it and until after Republicans and certain Democrats had prescribed for differing with him had forced it upon his reluctant attention.

But for the Republican Congressional support that he has had in this war he could not have conducted it to its present status. He charges Republican leaders with seeking to take the choice of policy and conduct of this war out of his hands by putting it under instrumentalities of their own choosing.

The difficulty with this statement is that it is not true. The mere mention of the name of Julius Kahn and his work in this Congress answers every reflection the President makes on the Republican minority.

What the Republican leaders at war materials to be used against the Hun.

Fayette county has made a wonderful war record. She has supported the President heart and soul.

And yet for Fayette county to return a Republican majority would be according to the President, furnishing support and comfort for the Kaiser!

Could there be at this time any logic more ridiculous, any statement more unjust, any conclusion more false, any construction more ungrateful than that?

tempted to do was to furnish the President with an executive organization by which he might carry on the war more effectively. There was not the slightest suggestion that he was not to appoint those who were to exercise the powers under his supervision and direction. He did not wish to delegate power to his appointees sufficient to enable them to achieve what had to be done and so objected.

The end he was driven to do in more awkward way that which months before the Republicans sought to give him effective machinery to do. Thus the War Council of Mr. Baker passed into innocuous desuetude, while Stettinius and Goethals, first rejected, were given requisite power.

Thus Demman was put forward, withdrawn, then another, then another and finally Schwab was given the unrestricted chance to push the making of ships. So with aviation, a lamentable waste and failure came first and then Ryan with requisite headship and authority is doing the job.

What was it that stimulated a reform of lamentable methods and devices in clothing, rifles, machine guns, artillery and ammunition but investigations in the Senate Military Committee of Republicans and a few willful but patriotic Democrats?

The patriotism and usefulness of the Republicans as a minority in winning this war stand out so clearly as compared with that of the leaders of the Democratic majority that the Republicans may well go to the people on the issue which the President raises.

Nor is there any more real weight in the President's plea that an election of a Republican Congress will injure the cause of the country in this war abroad as a vote of want of confidence in his prosecution of the war.

The intelligence which he says the European peoples have, has enabled them to see that an election of a Republican Congress will mean a more certain prosecution of this war to an unconditional surrender than if the President shall secure a House and Senate who will only do his will and second his desires.

The shiver which went through the hearts of the American people when the implied proposals of the President's first note for a negotiated peace were so quickly accepted by Germany was shared by all the brave but suffering people of our allies.

For reasons apparent to all, the real expressions of feeling in respect to President Wilson's utterances in England and France are restrained. But when the torrent of American public opinion compelled a gradual return toward a demand for unconditional surrender the joy of the allies was unrestrained. They knew that a verdict at the election for a Republican House will end forever the dangers which seemed to face a negotiated peace.

Instead of obstructing the President and our allies in winning this war and a dictated peace, nothing would so discourage the Germans and hearten our allies as the return of a Republican Congress.

Coal and Timber Lands.

YOUR BANK PAYS YOU 4 PER cent on your savings; many good coal mining stocks are paying from forty per cent to one hundred per cent and over. Both are safe. Which do you prefer? A new company recently incorporated is opening a mine located in Fayette county, Pa., and fronting on the Western Maryland railroad. The company has approximately nine hundred acres of land under deed with three hundred acres in high grade fuel coal which can all be worked at once from one dipple. The company is now offering treasury stock for sale for $100.00 per share. This is a great opportunity for the company believe that within two years the stock will be worth three times its present price and that it will be used from now on to take annual dividend of fifty per cent. The essential things in coal mining operations are to have a good quality of coal, good mining conditions, accessibility to transportation and a ready market and honest management and operation. With these things assured any coal mining company can make big money. A few hundred dollars invested in a good coal mining stock will pay you better and be safer than perhaps any other form of investment or speculation you can make. You are paying a high price for your coal. The easiest way to reduce your coal bills is to own an interest in a good coal mine. Now coal will be used every year from now on, than was mined ten years ago. A few hundred dollars properly invested in a good coal mining stock will assure you a permanent income for the future. More and more coal will be used from now on to take care of the needs of our new Merchant Marine, and a market with good prices is assured for all time to come. 1,000,000 LITHUANIANS

In America, 30,000 of Whom Are Fighting With the Americans Overseas.
The Lithuanians in Europe number about 3,000,000. Scattered through the Baltic provinces and in various other parts of the world, including the United States, there are another million and a half, making a total Lithuanian world population of some four and one-half millions. Nearly a million are in this country.

The million Lithuanians in this country are chiefly workers in the mines, factories and stock yards. They are known as among the most industrious and law-abiding of our foreign-born citizens. More than 30,000 of them are now fighting in the United States forces overseas, and 50 per cent of these are volunteers.

The Lithuanians will not form a part of the new Slavic legion, which is to include Poles, Russians and other Slavic peoples. They are not Slavs, but form a race apart together with the Letts and Livonians. Their aim, according to their leaders, is "an independent Lithuania and a confederation of all the small countries along the Baltic peopled by their race."

WAR SAVINGS SALES IN FAYETTE COUNTY TOTAL $1,161,560

Post Office Sales Amount to $885,460; John Davis Praised for Success of Pershing Limit Club.

Quietly and without any apparent effort on the part of the committee in charge there have been sold $1,161,560 in War Savings Stamps in this county according to a report just issued by the state committee including all business up to the first of October.

Postoffice sales made in the different offices throughout the county amounted to $885,460 and that through the Federal reserve bank credited to this county amounted to $275,900.

One of the men who is deserving of special credit in the matter is Superintendent John Davis of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in the Uniontown-Conneltsville district, who was and is the chairman of the Pershing Limit club.

The sales force of the insurance firm have started out to complete the goal of five hundred memberships in Fayette county to the Pershing Limit club of $1,000 each. Through the Pittsburg committee of W. S. S. the county has been prevailed upon to take out a number of Pershing Limit club memberships.

Then in June Mr. Davis was appointed chairman of that branch of activities and with his force secured a number of memberships and pledges. Of the pledges secured $218,000 has already been paid in to headquarters.

There remain but 78 memberships to boost the total up to the five hundred memberships sought by this enterprising group of men and a drive has been scheduled beginning November 1 and continuing until November 7 when the Metropolitan patriots expect to go over the top.

UNION OF MID-EUROPEAN RACES IS THE OBJECT OF A NEW ORGANIZATION
Formed in This Country to Assist the Difficulties and to Consider the Problems of These People.
There is a new committee in Washington, which has a program that is one of the deepest and most responsible that has been undertaken by any group of men since the beginning of the war. It is called the Democratic Mid-European Union and it has just opened the doors to its new headquarters. Its president is Dr. Thomas G. Masaryk, who is also president of the Czechoslovak National Council. Its executive director is Herbert Adolphus Miller, formerly professor of sociology in Oberlin college and for many years a close student of the races of middle Europe.

Briefly, the purpose of the Democratic Mid-European Union is to effect a unity of effort among the oppressed nations of Central Europe to smooth out and adjust their differences; and to provide a common council chamber where their representatives may meet together and discuss their problems from time to time.

There are seven groups already represented in the Union: the Czechs, the Poles, the Rumanians, the Yugoslavs, the Lithuanians, the Ukrainians, and the Italian Irredentists. Other nations will be admitted later, if they seek representation, the Letts, Finns, Estonians, Albanians, Unredeemed Greeks and others. Even the Bulgarians, if they show a thorough change of heart and a desire to subscribe to the aims of the federation, will not find the way barred to them.

BABCOCK LOSES
State Health Commissioner Refuses Pleas to Lift Ban in Pittsburg.
By Associated Press.
HARRISBURG, Oct. 30.—Mayor Babcock of Pittsburg held a lengthy conference with Dr. B. Franklin Royer, acting commissioner of health, yesterday but received no assurance that the closing ban would be lifted in Pittsburg for several days.

After carefully reviewing the influenza situation in Pittsburg with Mayor Babcock, and after receiving a full report from Dr. Adolph Koenig, state medical man assigned to the Pittsburg district, concerning the number of new cases in the city and surrounding towns, Dr. Royer said that it was extremely inadvisable to lift the ban.

Useful Kerosene.

PUBLIC IS WARNED Against Taking Substitutes for Nuxated Iron

Physicians Below Say That Ordinary Metallic Iron Preparations Cannot Possibly Give The Same STRENGTH, POWER AND ENDURANCE As Organic Iron—Nuxated Iron

United States Judge Atkinson Gives Opinion

Careful investigation by physicians among druggists has revealed the fact that there are thousands of people taking iron who do not distinguish between organic iron and metallic iron, and that such persons often fail to obtain the vital energy, strength and endurance which they seek, simply because they have taken the wrong form of iron.

Therefore, physicians mentioned below advise those who feel the need of strength and blood builder to go to their family doctors and obtain a prescription calling for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—and present this to their druggist so that there may be no question about obtaining the proper article. But if they do not wish to go to the trouble of getting a prescription for Nuxated Iron then be sure to look on the label and see that the words NUXATED IRON are printed there.

United States Judge G. W. Atkinson in the Court of Appeals, Washington, D. C., says: "It is well known that persons who are in the stress of physical or mental labor have permitted the system to become debilitated, the body exhausted or the nerves run down. It has restored my appetite and my vitality. I feel that I have dropped out of the burden of months of toil in the few weeks that I have been following the very simple directions for the use of Nuxated Iron."

Nuxated Iron and its widespread sale (it being estimated that over three million people annually are today using it), has led to the offering of numerous substitutes, and these physicians say that health officials and doctors everywhere should caution the public against accepting substitutes in medicines and they especially warn against accepting substitutes for Nuxated Iron, which, instead of being organic iron may be nothing more than a metallic iron compound which may in some cases produce more harm than good. The widespread publication of the above information, has been suggested by Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician at Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and formerly of the County of New York, and Dr. Ferdinand King, New York Physician and Medical Author and others, so that the public may be informed on this subject and protected from the use of metallic iron under the delusion that it is Nuxated Iron or at least something as good as Nuxated Iron.

It is surprising how many people suffer from iron deficiency and do not know it. If you are not strong or well, you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength and see how much you have gained.

Manufacturers' Note—Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended by physicians is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists. Unlike the other iron preparations, it is easily assimilated and enters the blood, making them more active and efficient. The manufacturers guarantee its purity and its ability to restore vitality to every person who will take it as directed.

SOLDIERS RECEIVE MUCH BENEFIT FROM BOXING IN MILITARY TRAINING CAMPS

SOLDIERS WITNESS BOXING AT CAMP HUMPHREYS, VA.

Published articles to the effect that boxing does not give a useful training as a basis for bayonet fighting and that the two have no common relationship have been emphatically denied in a formal statement that has been issued by Dr. Joseph E. Rayeroff, head of the athletic division of the war department commission on training camp activities, which directs the athletic activities in the military training camps throughout the country. The statement follows:

"Several more or less uninformed critics have published articles to the effect that boxing does not give useful training as a basis for bayonet fighting. Such criticisms are based upon ignorance of both bayonet fighting and military boxing. The experience of the past year in the training camps shows that boxing has great value as a preparation for bayonet fighting, and in the development of those physical and spiritual qualities that are characteristic of the aggressive fighting men.

Boxing Supplies Factor.
"The great majority of our young men who make up the army have had little or no experience in physical contact games that develop self-reliance, courage, quick thinking, and quick decisions under fire. Bayonet training at its best is a drill in which speed, endurance and skill in handling the weapon are developed, but in the nature of things there can be no practice contacts with the bayonets. Boxing supplies this important contest factor and furnishes a means of training men to keep their heads and to carry out an effective plan of attack, even though they are being punished by their opponents. In this way, qualities needed in the makeup of a bayonet fighter are

PLAYING OF QUILTS IS NOW PROHIBITED

General Pershing Has Put Ban on Horseshoe Game.

Huskies Have Not Hesitated to Back Horses Into Quiet Corner and Rip Shoes Off Innocent Animals
—May Use Mule Shoes.

The American army in France, it is reported, has been embarrassed at various times by the sudden breaking down of horses engaged in the transport service. Investigation showed that the horses were unshod, their steel shoes having been removed mysteriously. Further investigation showed that the shoes had been taken off the animals by the doughboys in order to pitch quilts, nothing being so good for the purpose as a horseshoe.

Quilts always has been a great American game. If it wasn't for quilts and going to the "dope" to see the 2:30 come in, life would not be so fascinating for prominent citizens of many bucolic burghs.

Over in France time hangs a bit heavily around the camps occasionally, and there has been a great revival of "pitchin'." The more the game has spread the more demand there has been for horseshoes. Now, there is one thing you can't say for the American doughboy. When he wants anything he goes and gets it, whether it be a Hun or a horseshoe. Various thousands of huskies, needing horseshoes, have backed transport horses, cavalry horses, all kinds of horses into a corner and with little more than a "whoa, boy," of preparation, have ripped the shoes off the innocent animals and then proceeded to get into the game.

Mr. John J. Pershing is said to be "that is called 'paved.'" He has issued orders prohibiting the playing of quilts with horseshoes, on pain of 30 days in the guardhouse for the first offense and three months' imprisonment for the second.

If the doughboys wish to pitch quilts, he says he has no objection, but they must lay off the use of horseshoes. He gives full permission to them to take all the mule shoes they desire, that is, if they take them off the hind or southern extremities of the gentle creatures.

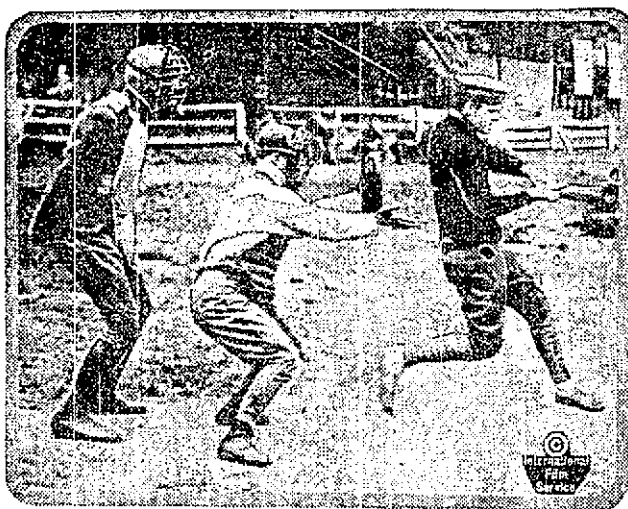

It looks as if it will be a closed season for quilts in France so long as the war lasts if Pershing persists in looking at the great American game of "pitch" this way.

FOOTBALL GAMES IN FRANCE
Director Anguish of Paris Division of Y. M. C. A., Makes Request for Pair of Pants.

Judging from a request made in the Paris edition of an American newspaper recently, there is going to be a football played in France this winter. The Hindsburg line is not the

YANKEE GAMES HAVE MADE IMPROVEMENT IN PERFORMANCES OF SOLDIERS IN FRANCE

American athletic sports are serving a double purpose among French soldiers. Primarily introduced for the amusement of the poilus, the Yankee games have resulted in improving the performance of the men in purely military duties. Naturally the Y. M. C. A. Foyer du Soldat, which has charge of this work, is feeling proud.

Throwing Hand Grenades.
As a result of playing baseball, the soldiers at a camp where J. A. Nelson represents the Red Triangle athletic department are throwing hand grenades 40 meters, instead of the average of 30 that prevailed before the Yankee national game was introduced.

An increase of ten meters in the range of one of these deadly missiles means more "good boches," because one that is going to be smashed over there.

J. L. Anguish, director of athletics for the Paris division of the Y. M. C. A., recently asked for a pair of football pants through the columns of a newspaper. He explained that the pair of pants was wanted to serve as a pattern from which he hopes to have 12,000 pairs made for the use of the soldiers.

Incidentally the great football stars of the past decade from the East, West, North and South are with the American expeditionary force abroad, there should be some real all-American games staged behind the lines soon. That is, if Mr. Anguish gets that pair of pants for a pattern.

The men, in addition to throwing farther, are also throwing more accurately. Some of them were many feet "off the target" before they were introduced to baseball.

Interest in Other Sports.
In addition to baseball, basket ball, volley ball, association football, croquet and tennis are flourishing. The French fighters are taking such interest in these sports that some days more soldiers will appear than can be accommodated with the facilities at hand. Only when the day's artillery program has been of such an exhausting character that it has taken all the men's "pep" is there any lack of attendance on the playground.

WHAT ABOUT LABOR IN AFTER-WAR PERIOD?

Will Nation Experience Same Delay That Has Marked War Preparation?

Workmen in the United States are now fully employed at higher wages than labor has ever known. Many of them have become accustomed to a scale of living better than they have ever known. In the last two years nearly one million women have taken jobs either formerly held by men or newly created jobs which under ordinary circumstances would be filled by men.

Three million able-bodied men are now either actually in service or being called to training camps. Over five million laborers are actually engaged in factories and plants directly and wholly occupied in making war material. Another five million are engaged in quasi-war work.

What will happen to these millions when peace is declared? What will become of the "war jobs"? What will happen to the high level of wages? The moment peace is declared the United States Government and other Governments will cancel their immense outstanding orders and contracts for war material. Automatically this will throw millions out of employment unless provision is made ahead of time to find work for them during the period of reconstruction.

This advance preparation cannot be made in a day, a week or a month. It is a more gigantic task to prepare for this than it was to prepare for war. We have been engaged in war now over eighteen months, and we still are dependent upon England and France for munitions, guns, clothing, ships and much other war material. If the present administration of affairs could not put the nation on a war basis in eighteen months how long would it take the same leaders to put the nation on a peace basis?

These questions only indicate the very serious problems which labor must confront immediately upon the declaration of peace. Republican congressmen confess that it is necessary that this government should immediately take steps to safeguard labor during the period after the war when industry is readjusting itself. They contend that labor should be protected from the flood of cheap products abroad and from enforced idleness at home. Republican leaders are back of the War's Reconstruction bill which would create a bipartisan committee to begin immediately the framing of policies to meet these emergencies.

WHO GIVES MONEY AND WHO GETS IT

Official Data on South's Contribution to Third Liberty Loan.

In a recent issue of the Literary Digest, there appeared a series of advertisements, many of them by Southern advertising agencies, on behalf of the new issue of Southern States. One of these ads reads in part as follows: "Descriptions of the Southern people to Liberty Bonds exceed the average of the United States. Returns from subscriptions for the Third Liberty Loan show that every Southern district is more than subscribed to its quota. . . . How did this happen? No one contends that the Southern people are more patriotic than the rest of the countrymen. But as the above figures show clearly that the Southern people are more patriotic than the rest of the countrymen, there is no reasonable deduction—he has more money to spend. You can't get away from it. . . . You don't have to wait till harvest time in the South, as in the North and West, when the farmer is supposed to have more money. Every day is a harvest time in the South."

This effort to make it appear that the South did more than its share in subscribing to the Third Liberty Loan is not sustained by the data issued by the United States Treasury Department. The official figures taken from the Treasury department's report of the Third Liberty Loan shows that the Fourth Southern Federal Reserve District subscribed only $202,953,330 out of a total national subscription of $4,176,518,750, or only about 13 percent of the total subscriptions of the United States, notwithstanding the fact that the federal reserve districts comprise one-third of the federal reserve districts of the United States.

The $202,953,330 the Southern states contributed to the Third Liberty Loan is a little more than the amount of money the government spent in those states building army cantonments, camps and other military plants. In other words, the South did but little more than lend to the government the equivalent of the millions in real money the government had actually given the South. Counting in the millions of dollars northern soldiers sent to southern camps and friends of northern soldiers visiting them in southern camps spent in the South, the South did not lend the United States as much money in the Third Liberty Loan as the United States had spent in the South since April, 1917. In other words, the South did not draw upon its own wealth or normal income at all.

"The war must not only be won, but it must stay won."—Former President Taft. Which means the policies of reconstruction must not throw away what our boys have won by their sacrifices. The Republican party has blooded by the war. It will stand to save for American people what the war has won.

We have been engaged in war 18 months and we still are dependent upon England and France for munitions, guns, clothing, ships and other war material. How long would it take the same leaders to get the nation readjusted on a peace basis?

The French people say they hold Republican leaders in America next to American generals in their esteem, because Republican leaders have always stood by the war.

GIVE ALL SECTIONS A VOICE IN CONGRESS

The policies of reconstruction will determine the future of this nation for generations. They should be framed by a Congress which is not sectional, which is not dominated by men from one state who know only one interest—Cotton—and whose views of all issues are warped by race prejudices.

The North, the East and the West should be consulted in our Reconstruction policies. They should have equal voice with the South in deciding the future of our laboring and farming populations. The only way that this may be done is to elect a Republican Congress. With a "South in the Saddle" Congress, as we now have, Reconstruction would mean a private soap for a few southern states and cotton interests.

HOW HAS WILSON BEEN HAMPERED?

Given More Power Than Ever Give Lincoln, More Money Than Russia's Czar.

"Washington and Lincoln were hampered by critics. Don't hamper Wilson. Elect Men Who Will Aid Him Win the War."—Democratic National Committee ad.

Senator Lewis, of Illinois, early in the year, before the Democratic National Committee decided to label the Republican party and question the loyalty of 9,000,000 Republican voters said, in speaking of what Congress had done: "We have given to the President greater powers than were ever entrusted to Washington or requested by Lincoln. We have placed at his disposal more money than was ever controlled by the Czar of Russia."

This is but a simple statement of a fact, for the Republicans in Congress have joined hands with the Democrats in transferring unparalleled power to President Wilson in order that he might have a free hand in waging a victorious war.

Give President Dictatorial Powers. By a series of special enactments Congress has made him dictator of all the processes of production, distribution and marketing of virtually all the necessities of war, and even of national existence.

In order to increase President Wilson's war waging powers Congress has created special councils, boards and commissions governing practically every sort of industrial, agricultural, mercantile, and financial activities, and placed the personnel and the direction of these councils, boards, and commissions in the hands of the President.

Congress has given President Wilson absolute control, through his own appointees, who are subject only to him, of the nation's food and fuel; of its vital and underlying industries; of its domestic transportation systems by land and water; of all shipping which touches our shores, whether American, foreign, or neutral; of all exports and imports; of the disposition of all financial credits, of the prices of commodities, and of foreign relations.

Congress voted the President, as Commander in Chief of the armies and navies, $100,000,000 contingent fund to be expended by him without making any accounting to Congress.

When Congress voted loans for the Allied nations it left it up to the President to allot these loans, which amounted to over $7,000,000,000, he being the sole judge, under the extraordinary powers given him by Congress, as to what nations should participate in these loans and how much each participating nation should receive.

All of this, has Congress done since the United States went to war with Germany and in all of this the Republicans assisted. Republican leaders have been in the foreground of every parliamentary battle in Congress which had to do with measures which stood by the war. They led the fight, when Democratic leaders deserted the President, to give the United States the Army of Victory which is now driving the Hun from the fields of France and Flanders, and bringing consternation to the Hohenzollern dynasty at Potsdam.

Despite the fact the Republicans have been standing by the war and strengthening the war arm of the President after Democratic leaders failed him, the Democratic National Committee and Democratic leaders seeking re-election are trying to make the country believe the election of a Republican Congress would in some manner hamper the prosecution of the war.

REPUBLICANS ASKED EARLY THIS YEAR FOR LARGER ARMY

Democratic Eleventh Hour Conversion to Need of Big Army in France.

Washington, D. C.—There is no longer any doubt in the minds of any one that Bulgaria's dropping out of the war, Turkey's being crushed as a military factor and Germany's being beaten back from the soil of France and Flanders is due to the tremendous contribution of man power the United States has made to the Allied cause during the last few months. This is now so well known that it seems almost incredible there should ever have been any opposition to this country's raising a tremendous army.

Yet only nine months ago the Democratic leaders at Washington were opposing any increase in the military man power of this country. At the same time the Republican leaders of the country were insisting upon sending gigantic armies to France.

At a time when Democratic leaders were insisting that 500,000 men would be the maximum contribution of America to the Allied cause former President W. H. Taft, writing in the Philadelphia Public Ledger under the date of March 7, 1918, said:

"This estimate and point of view argues a failure to appreciate the real duty of the United States in this war. . . . Our Allies do not expect us to carry on a joint debate with the Austrian and German Chancelleries. . . . We should raise an army of not less than 5,000,000 men. . . . The quicker we act in this view the speedier and more certain our victory. The draft act must be amended to carry out such preparations."

Addressing the Maine State Republican Convention on March 28, 1918, Col. Roosevelt declared that nothing except force could and would win the war, and he urged an army of 5,000,000 men be raised with all possible speed to furnish this force.

Before and after these dates Chairman Hays of the Republican National Committee in many public addresses urged the passage of all constructive measures necessary to put through immediately a program of "Win the War Now!"

On March 25, 1918, Gen. Leonard Wood, just returned from France, testifying before the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, said that France and Great Britain were greatly disappointed at the slowness of America's war preparations, and he gave as his opinion that immediate steps should be taken to raise an army of not less than 5,000,000 men. He warned for entering this basic military truth, which is now recognized universally, was to be refused permission to accompany his soldiers to France.

The insistent warnings of Republican leaders at that time, however, proved unavailing. The Democratic leaders of Congress refused to make any amendment to the Conscription Act providing for increased drafts. Even the Democratic leaders, however, now admit that we must have an army of at least 4,000,000 men in France, and because they have come around to this point after nearly a year's criticism of it and opposition to it they seek to make the voters believe it is necessary to continue their control of Congress in order that the Government may not be embarrassed in its prosecution of the war. It is perfectly evident, however, to all reading and thinking people that the only embarrassment suffered by the United States Government and President Wilson as Commander-in-Chief of the Army was that offered by the dilatory tactics and open opposition of the Democratic party to effective war measures.

THE TEN-HERBS MAN SAYS OLD "DOCTOR NATURE" THE BEST

He Will Perform Wonders No Human Physician Need Ever Hope to Equal.

Thousands of Pennsylvania people are now taking Ten-Herbs, although this remarkable new remedy for stomach ailments and a general run-down condition has only been on the market for a short time. Its success has been instantaneous. No medicine ever introduced here has made such a quick record of popular approval, according to the local druggists.

The Ten-Herbs man, an expert doctor from the Ten-Herbs laboratories, gives the following explanation of the action of Ten-Herbs:

"The prime cause of nine-tenths of chronic ill health is intestinal and stomach fermentation. Food which should be digested and manufactured into rich, pure, healthy blood, literally rots in the stomach and bowels, forming a virulent poison. This poison gets into the blood through the kidneys and liver, which are themselves affected by the toxic juices so that they cannot perform their functions properly.

All kinds of disorders result. There is gas formation after eating, and pains, either sharp or shooting or dull and continuous, are liable to be felt wherever the blood carries this fermentation poison. An excess of uric acid forms in the blood, causing rheumatism, chalky deposits collect at the bone joints and severe muscular pains are felt.

"These conditions eventually break down the bodily tissues and reduce the number of leucocytes (white corpuscles in the blood), and this lowers the victim's so-called powers of resistance to disease. Germs of catarrh and influenza, even consumption, find the chronic sufferer easy prey.

"The body becomes enfeebled and the patient is subject to fits of uncontrollable nervousness, a dull fear of foreboding as to the future is a common symptom. The vital forces of the body diminish and there is a lack of ambition and interest in life.

"Ten-Herbs goes right to the root of the whole trouble, by relieving the cause of the various ailments. Ten-Herbs gives nature a chance and 'Old Doctor Nature' is the best physician on earth. Give him the right kind of aid and he will work wonders that no human doctor can perform. That is the secret of Ten-Herbs' wonderful success."

Ten-Herbs is sold in Conneltsville at the Conneltsville Drug Co's. Store.

Truth Survives.

What is true cannot be made truer. The world may question it and attack it and "hawk at it and tear it," but it will survive. It makes no difference either how humble the source from which the truth may emanate, it is not a question of authority. If it is truth, it may come from a carpenter of Nazareth or from an attic in the Latin quarter; sooner or later all the world will accept it.—Lester F. Ward.

Advice Old but Still Good. Once recommended that the soil of a farm be good and fertile; also that near it there be plenty of laborers and that it be not far from a large town, moreover that it have sufficient means of transporting its produce, either by water or land. This advice, although 2,600 years old, still holds good.

NEW RECORDS for your TALKING MACHINE

War songs! Everybody's singing them, whistling them, thinking them, acting them, these days. One of the best of the newest is "The Yanks Are At It Again." It's a winner—and to hear it sung by one of the new November Columbia Records by Arthur Fields and the Peerless Quartet, makes you want to buy the whole issue of Liberty Bonds all by yourself, and then go over and beat up the entire German army. On the back is another equally as good—"We Don't Want the Bacon, what We Want is a Piece of the Rhine." The best description of them both is that they're better, even than their titles.

Columbia announces another "scop" this month, in the first record to be made by the famous Naval Reserve Band. Conductor Shannan has led his boys through two stirring marches, "Incorrigible," and the well known "De Molay Commandery."

Have you ever been fortunate enough to hear Guido Deiro play the accordion? If you have, you have heard this remarkable instrument become a living, breathing thing in the hands of a master. It is astounding, a performance worthy of a small orchestra to hear the "Serenade—Les Niliens d'Allegretto," or "My Florence," on this Columbia Record that Deiro has made.

Do you know the "Blue Rose Waltz"? Or the equally beautiful "Nona"? They're both coupled on one of Columbia's new November Dances Records made by Prince's Orchestra. With this dancing season in full swing, and the waits coming back into a tremendous popularity, you can't afford to be without these two charming dance melodies.

WELD SEVEN WAR WORK AGENCIES INTO RELIEF ARMY

Great Organizations Which Are Helping to Keep Up the Morale of Fighting Millions Unite in Campaign for $170,500,000.

With millions of American men on war fronts, in training camps and on the seas and with thousands of American women on foreign soil, all engaged in the stupendous task of making the world safe for democracy, a great duty devolves upon those who remain in the United States—the duty of sending home to those who have put home behind them for the period of the war. The agencies through which this can be accomplished are joined in the United War Work Campaign.

From being given the cigarette or chocolate bar with which he saves his hunger in the fury of battle to the theatrical entertainment or the athletic games, which relax him into normal comfort after weeks of terrific combat, the American fighter is dependent upon the continued efforts of the Y M C A, the Y W C A, the National Catholic War Council and K. of C., the War Camp Community Service, the Jewish Welfare Board, the American Library Association and the Salvation Army. To carry on this work the combined welfare organizations are seeking a fund of $170,500,000.

The Y M C A provides 533 huts in American training camps and more than 800 in the war zone as centers where the fighters can use as clubs, schools, theatres, stores, churches, libraries and writing rooms. More than 7,000 men and women had been sent overseas or approved for overseas work by early autumn and 3,222 were serving in American camps at home.

Y M C A huts are the centers of the American Expeditionary Force and are the theatres where the American entertainers sent over by the Y appear. Noted American public men and clergymen speak in the huts. Classes are conducted there. Millions of letters are written there on paper provided free by the Y. Physical directors of the "Y" teach and spread mass athletics, using material furnished free by the organization.

The Y W C A does similar work for the thousands of American women in war work overseas—signal corps telephone operators, nurses and French munition workers. It provides infirmaries, rest and recreation centres, entertainment and reading for these women and girls.

The Y W C A's outstanding contribution to soldier welfare work in training camps was the establishment of Hostess Houses, where the soldier or sailor may receive his mother, wife, sister or sweetheart in the surroundings and atmosphere of the best home.

The National Catholic War Council co-ordinates all Catholic welfare work in support of the government and through the K of C provides club houses for our fighters in all American training camps as well as having seventy-five centres in France and three in England. In the K of C, the K of C provides entertainment, movies, boxing bouts, educational work, religious services, free stationery, reading matter and writing rooms. In France their rolling ambulance accompanies the American army, their secretaries march with the troops, giving away cigarettes, cookies, chocolate, soap and towels.

The K of C had 300 workers in France at the beginning of autumn with 40 more passed by the government and 200 others signed up. At the same date they had 45 secretaries in American training camps, 150 buildings fifty-six more in the line of erection and contracts let for fifty more.

War Camp Community Service functions exclusively in securing its social and social help to surround the camps with its activities. In place of leaving the soldier or sailor to the loneliness of his quarters and the various forms of relief the organization that of late for him the best to be had in ammunition, clothing, camp or through which he passes.

War Camp Community Service aims to give him the best of the best in the best homes. It introduces him to the best women and girls in social gatherings, club entertainments, entertainment, entertainment, entertainment to provide comfort, athletic contests and a her wholesome diversion for the soldier and to drive out or discourage the vicious habits which have been historic camp followers.

The Jewish Welfare Board is concerned with the strength and purposes of Jewish soldiers, sailors and marines with that of the Gentile soldiers. The board teaches the Jewish language, American civics and deals to thousands of Jewish soldiers who were inducted into service after only a few years residence in this country. While safeguarding the religious rites of the Jew, it is in the process of welding the Jewish soldier into the solid American unit and in bridging over the differences between him and the others.

The American Library Association is providing reading matter for every American soldier, sailor, marine and member of the air. In addition to gathering and forwarding three million books contributed by the American people the association bought 700,271 books mostly technical or which 193,207 were sent overseas. More than 1,500,000 books of all kinds have been assigned to libraries in Y M C A, K of C or Salvation Army huts in the war zone, a similar number being distributed in American training camps while half a million are on ships or transports. The association has erected and operates forty-one libraries.

The Salvation Army with 1,210 workers, principally women, overseas has won the affection of the fighters. Its 501 huts, rest and reading rooms are popular gathering places for the soldiers. The companying files by the

Start Tomorrow and Keep It Up Every Morning

Get in the habit of drinking a glass of hot water before breakfast.

We're not here long so let's make our stay agreeable. Let us live well, eat well, digest well, work well, sleep well and look well. What a glorious condition to attain and yet how very easy it is if one will only adopt the morning inside bath.

Folk who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when they arise splitting headache stuff from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach can instead feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone whether ailing sick or well should each morning before breakfast drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of Limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins. The action of hot water and Limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast.

The millions of people who are both erred with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, others who have all low skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of Limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of inside-bathing before breakfast.—Adv.

Valley inmates in huts or trenches and given to the men have become famous around the world. The Salvation Army gave forty-four ambulances to the American and Allied armies and in many other ways gives constant unselfish service.

Stomach Misery

Milona stomach tablets will give you relief in five minutes. If taken regularly, for two weeks they will turn your flabby, sour, tired out stomach into a sweet, energetic, perfect working one.

Health Conditions of the County and Other Matters Under Discussion This Afternoon.

Newly elected directors of the Fayette County chapter of the American Red Cross are holding their first meeting at the county headquarters in Uniontown this afternoon. Several important matters are to be taken up for discussion among them the influenza situation and need for trained nurses. W. P. Schenck, executive secretary, in the call for the meeting of directors, made this statement:

In a survey made of Fayette county, most deplorable conditions were found in certain localities owing to the influenza epidemic. Assistance must be furnished by the Red Cross and at the board meeting Wednesday October 30 action will be taken relative to the furnishing of relief.

Every branch chairman should be present to bring before the board conditions as they exist in their locality and to present their needs for relief and assistance.

Two members of the board of directors are expected to attend the meeting this afternoon especially inasmuch as this is the first meeting.

WALTER MAYER JOINS ARMY

Red Sox Player Loses No Time in Returning Home Arranging Affairs, and Departing

Walter Mayer of the champion Red Sox lost little time returning to his home in Cincinnati after his arrival in France and answering the call of his draft board to army service. He arrived home on one train and within a hour was "on the way to Berlin" meaning that he had been bundled off to camp. In that hour he invested his share of the world's series receipts after making several donations to war relief work.

More Than 2,000,000 Have Heard The NEW EDISON In Tone Tests—

And in not one instance has a listener been able to distinguish between the two. In not one case has anyone been able to say when it was the living voice he heard and when the Re-Creation. Even the newspaper critics, the most skeptical of listeners, have united in supporting our assertions.

Did it ever strike you as significant that the NEW EDISON is the only instrument which has ever been put to such a test.

Stop in Tomorrow and Hear the Following Re-Creations

No. 83067—Young Tom O'Deron (Russell) Arthur Middleton.
—Sunshine Song (Greig) Julia Heinrich.
Arthur Middleton's interpretation of this rollicking Irish song is irresistible. The Greig number is sunshine itself in ballad form.

No. 83371—My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice—Samson and Dalilah—(Saint Saens) Cornell, Louis Kalmann.
—Triumphal March—Aida—(Verdi) Sodero's Band.
The appealing quality of the cornet makes it particularly appropriate for this dramatic love song of Saint Saens. The exciting swing of the march is splendidly brought out by Sodero's famous band.

No. 82174—Theme and Variations (Proch) Frieda Hempel, Soprano, in Italian.
Frieda Hempel, the famous coloratura operatic soprano, achieved her great success when she appeared in the role of Marie in "The Daughter of the Regiment."

No. 82349—The Marie—Cavalleria Rusticana (Mascagni) Frieda Hempel, in Italian, violin obligato by Harry Zentav.
This quiet, infinitely beautiful melody needs just such a perfect voice as Frieda Hempel's to do it justice.
